Counseling Connections for Change, Inc. is thrilled about your desire to assist with the Connections for Hope Camp. This camp has been developed to bring emotional and behavioral changes in children from hard places. Volunteers play an important role in making this happen. Volunteers include Camp Buddies, Camp Specialists and Camp Support.

We will be hosting a two-day family camp with the camper, both parents, and siblings attending. We will be accepting 7 to 10 families, and all children including siblings will have a camp Buddy assigned to them. Buddies will be expected to attend all of the camp as well as the two pre-camp training sessions. Ideally, Buddies will also be able to attend our camp reunion sessions following this camp.

Camp Specialists will facilitate daily camp activities and may also serve as floaters for Buddies. Specialists will be expected to attend the two pre-camp training sessions and may have flexibility depending on the camp schedule.

Camp Support provide an administrative role at camp and are essential to the overall success at the camp. Camp Supporters may help by providing financial support for specific needs or hands on support such as food service, set up/clean up, runners for Specialists and Buddies, medical support, and photography/videography. Support must attend a ½ day training prior to camp and will also have some flexibility depending on the camp schedule.

Working with children from hard places can be difficult and rewarding work. Our hope is that while Volunteers are giving their time and emotional energy, they will also receive the satisfaction of knowing they have made a difference in the lives of children and families. To help ensure this outcome, details of the services needed for camp are provided to ensure that camp volunteers are fully aware of program expectations. As you read through this letter, please give your commitment serious consideration. By consenting to participate in camp, you are making a commitment to Counseling Connections for Change, Inc. and the children you will serve.

After reading the Camp Participation document provided with this letter and praying through your commitment, we encourage you to complete and submit your camp application. We would like to thank you again for your interest in our work and the desire to help us in our pledge to help children from hard places.
